

Wood Badge 2017 Ticket Tracking

Participant Name: James Childress

Patrol: Bear

Troop Guide Approval: T Edward Darby
(please make any notes on back)

Senior Staff Approval: Les Thom
(please make any notes on back)

Scribes...

This one has been copied _____

This one has been scanned _____

Wood Badge Ticket

Name: James O. Childress S7-602-14 Patrol: Bears

My Scouting Position: Cub Pack Advancement Chair

Vision: To continue my scouting education beyond Wood Badge to help ensure I can become the best leader possible for my scouts in my current unit and the ones yet to come.

Goal# 1 (Diversity Item)

Team that will benefit from my leadership: Cub Scouts

SMART goal: To help my Pack's Webelos Scouts develop an awareness to the challenges faced by scouts who are physically impaired to include visual, hearing, speaking, and mobility impairments. This will also help the Scout to earn their "Aware & Care" elective adventure pin.

Who: My Pack's Webelos Scouts

What: Lead a Webelos den meeting to help scouts earn their "Aware & Care" elective adventure pin.

Where: Webelos Den Meeting

When: At an upcoming Webelos den meeting no later than May 2018.

Why: By giving myself more first hand experience teaching Scouts about issues facing physically diverse individuals with impairments and disabilities.

How: By giving my Packs's Webelos Scouts what they need to complete the requirements for their "Aware & Care" adventure pin.

How you will determine the task is complete: The task will be completed when I've finished the den meeting.

TED 10/14/17

Goal #2

The Team that will benefit from my leadership: Scouts in general

SMART goal: To attend Commissioners College in able to further my Scouting education.

Who: Myself

What: Attend Commissioners College further continuing my education in Scouting.

Where: The next Commissioners College held by the HOVC.

When: When the next course is offered within the next 12 months.

Why: This will broaden my current limited knowledge of Scouting helping to ensure I can become a more rounded leader.

How: By completing the course and receiving my Commissioners College Associates degree.

How you will determine the task is complete: By completing the course and learning all I can.

TED 10/14/17

Goal #3

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Scouts in general.

SMART goal: To become a Cub Pack Unit Commissioner

Who: Myself and the Packs that I will serve.

What: Become a Unit Commissioner and be assigned to Packs in my District.

Where: Within my district.

When: As soon as my Commissioners training is complete and I am assigned my first Pack.

Why: This goal will allow me to use my newly acquired leadership skills in assisting Packs in my District.

How: By becoming a Unit Commissioner

How will you determine the task is complete: When I am officially a Unit Commissioner, have been assigned and visited my first Cub Scout Pack.

TED 10/14/17

Goal #4

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Scout in general

SMART goal: To become CPR/AED certified giving myself the knowledge to help Scouts and anyone in general by being able to perform CPR or operate an AED should a need arise.

Who: Myself

What: Learn how to perform CPR and operate an AED in order to better protect the Scouts and Adults I may lead in the future.

Where: At a certified CPR/AED class.

When: Within the next 18 months

Why: This will give myself another key component in becoming a good leader by allowing me to care for the well being of my Scouts.

How: By finishing a class and by learning life saving skills.

How you will determine the task is complete: By finishing the course and obtaining my CPR/AED certification. TED 10/14/17

Goal #5

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Scout in general

SMART goal: To complete the Trainer's EDGE course acquiring the skills to effectively train Scouts, Scout Leaders, and take the EDGE method back to the leaders in my Pack.

Who: Myself

What: To learn and become proficient in utilizing the EDGE method in teaching.

Where: At a Trainers EDGE course within the next 18 months.

When: Within the next 18 months.

Why: To become better at teaching and training Scouts and Scout leaders.

How: By attending and completing a Trainers EDGE class and sharing that knowledge with Leaders in my Pack.

How you will determine the task is complete: By completing the course and obtaining my certification and sharing that knowledge with Leaders in my Pack by leading an Edge training class for them.

TED / 10/14/17