My vision of success and the related plan of action is:

The future of Scouting lies in providing a focused, impactful, and desirable impression to specific groups. Some of those groups I see are lacking such emphasis. One such group is primarily already provided for us, and is sometimes overlooked or out right ignored. Our Feeder Packs. I hope to work with and incorporate into an even greater extent the Troop into the Pack through heavy use of Den Chiefs, Troop Guides and Adult Troop Leaders I hope to inspire those younger Cub Scouts (and their Parents) to strive to become Boy Scouts.

Another group in need of focused attention are the recently ranked or soon to be ranked Life Scouts. These boys need (and their Parents) emphasis on the necessary requirements and challenges facing them if they desire to achieve Eagle.

I there for am looking to provide for and assist in the long term viability and strength of my Troop.

By working with these two groups I hope to improve not only our Feeder Pack, our Troop, and by extension, our community and nation.

Wood Badge Ticket Goal Sheet Goal # 1

Name: Douglas Dompkowski _____ S7-602-17 Patrol: Bobwhite _____

My Scouting position: Committee Chair _____

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Troop and Pack 503 _____

SMART goal: (AOL Liaison) - By working with and developing a transition plan for the Webelos II early in their final calendar year of Cub Scouts, I hope to incorporate more Boy Scout ideals (Patrol Method, Boy Leadership) to make their post Bridging Scout Career easier and more valuable. This information also translates into a mechanism that by working directly with the Parents of these Scouts, I can provide their transition plan for these on what is expected not only of their Boys, but the Parents as well once they become a member of our Troop.

Who: Webelos II Scouts of Pack 503 _____

What: Develop a plan and presentation to provide the Webelos II Den and their parents on the transition to and growth into their respective Troop. This presentation should include, but not be limited to, basic information on Troop organization, current Troop Calendar, and current Troop contact lists (both email and voice).

Where: Church of the Redeemer - Mechanicsville, VA _____

When: Starting January 2018 _____

Why: To assist, expose and expand upon those lessons these boys will receive as AOL's directly related to the transition and eventual incorporation into a Boy Scout Troop. To make these boys (and their parents) aware of the Troop's expectations of them as the newest member of Troop. _____

How: Via regular visits during their Den Meetings with a selected and trained Den

Chief/Troop Guide. _____

How you will determine the task is complete: By implementing this plan for the “graduating” class of 2018. Any shortcomings will be addressed and the program updated to reflect these changes. Once finalized and approved, this position can become a duty assigned to any ASM on a rotating basis to provide flexibility and future input to further improve the program. _____

Troop Guide goal approval: Arthur Clark Date: 10/15/17

How you will determine the task is complete: If the Scout is successful in achieving Eagle with minimal encouragement from the Scoutmaster, his staff, and the remainder of the Troop- and a post Ranking Interview with the Scout, his Parents, and the Scout Master a decision can be reached whether or not this Task is successful. Any shortcomings will be addressed and the program updated to reflect these changes. Once finalized and approved, this position can become a duty assigned to any ASM on a rotating basis to provide flexibility and future input to further improve the program.

Troop Guide goal approval: Arthur Carter Date: 10/15/17

for those boys earning their Arrow of Light. _____

How you will determine the task is complete: Upon post Bridging review/interviews with Cub/Scoutmasters and other individuals deemed to have input into the ceremony. Any shortcomings will be addressed and the program updated to reflect these changes. Once finalized and approved, this position can become a duty assigned to any ASM on a rotating basis to provide flexibility and future input to further improve the program. _____
