My vision of success and the related plan of action is:

Vision: My vision of success is to inspire, train and implement Scout-led leadership in Troop 2852.

Action Plan: My plan of action to accomplish this vision is to:

1. Share my vision of Scout-led leadership with Adult Scout Leaders and parents via 2 training sessions.
2. Organize and offer Introduction to Leadership Skills for Troops (ILST) course.
3. Develop a troop resource guide on Scout-led troops.
4. Implement Scout-led leadership through a diversity service project.
5. Continue my personal training by earning Scouter's Training Award.

Name: Jamie L. Malone _____ S7-602-17 Patrol: Owls _____

My Scouting position: Scoutmaster _____

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Troop leaders and parents _____

SMART goal: My goal is to plan, organize and conduct two adult trainings before the ILST course is offered in the Spring 2018 (see Ticket 2). The first training will be for Adult Scout leaders and the second will be for parents of Scouts. These trainings will provide the vision for building a Scout led troop, introduce the ILST course, go over resources available to assist with this vision and address questions. _____

Who: I will provide two training meetings. The first will be to the Adult Scout leaders and the second to parents of Scouts. _____

What: These trainings will provide the vision for building a Scout-led troop, introduce the ILST course, go over resources available to assist with this vision and address questions. _____

Where: I anticipate both meetings will be held at our church building (4601 N Bailey Bridge Rd, Midlothian, VA). _____

When: Ideally, before the end of 2017 (but no later than the end of January 2018). _____

Why: I am in a LDS Troop. This month (Oct. 2017), our Adult Scout leadership is going through a transition (e.g. new adult assignments for Asst. SM(s), etc.). Therefore, I feel it imperative to share my vision of building a Scout-led troop and help them understand the resources and tools available to make this happen. In addition, I need to share this vision with parents and introduce them to the ILST course that will take place in 2018. _____

How: First, I will coordinate dates for the two meetings. Second, I will prepare and organize the trainings for each group. Finally, I plan to conduct these meeting by yearend. _____

How you will determine the task is complete: Once both training meetings have been completed. _____

Name: Jamie L. Malone _____ S7-602-17 Patrol: Owl _____

My Scouting position: Scoutmaster _____

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Troop scout leadership (SPL, ASPL, PL(s), APL(s), and other scouts with leadership responsibilities)

SMART goal: To train the Scout troop leaders (youth), I will organize and offer the Introduction to Leadership Skills for Troops (ILST) course by the spring of 2018.

Who: This will involve Adult Scout leaders and the troop scout leadership. I intend for this course to be offered to all Boy Scout leaders (those with major and minor leadership roles).

What: Complete the Introduction to Leadership Skills for Troops (ILST) course

Where: The location will likely be at our church building (4601 N Bailey Bridge Rd, Midlothian, VA) or as part of a special campout for the Boy Scout leaders.

When: It is anticipated that this training will take place in the spring of 2018. In order to complete the course in the spring, preparation will need to begin in the winter. The goal is to complete this course in time to provide the opportunity for at least one Scout to go to NYLT or Buckskin.

Why: Leadership is a vital part of Scouting. My vision is to build a Scout-led troop. To my knowledge, this course has not been offered during the 5 years my son has been in the Troop. I plan to offer this course to help the Scouts understand their leadership roles and provide them with tools, skills and training to be successful in their responsibilities.

How: First, I will become familiar with the course. Then, I will begin organizing the training for our troop in the winter of 2018 to take place in the Spring of 2018.

How you will determine the task is complete: Once the ILST course is finished.

My Scouting position: Scoutmaster _____

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Troop 2852 _____

SMART goal: My goal is to develop a troop resource guide on Scout-led leadership by the end of 2018. In addition to this goal benefiting Troop 2852, I plan to offer this guide to other LDS troops in my Stake.

Who: I will prepare this resource guide for the benefit of Troop 2852. In addition, I will offer this guide to the other LDS troops in my Stake.

What: Develop a resource guide on Scout-led troops. This guide will include principles, resources and instructions to building a Scout-led troop.

Where: Not applicable.

When: I plan to complete this guide by the end of 2018.

Why: In LDS troops, Adult Scout leadership positions are typically filled by assignment. Changes in these assignments often impact a large number of the Adult Scout leaders. Accordingly, the purpose of this guide is to provide resources to help continue Scout-led leadership in our troop.

How: I will study and review the available resources available and then prepare a resource guide for our troop.

How you will determine the task is complete: This ticket will be complete once I have completed the resource guide, shared it with my troop and offer it to the other LDS Troops in my Stake.

My Scouting position: Scoutmaster _____

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Me (directly) and my troop (indirectly) _____

SMART goal: My goal is to earn my Scouter's Training Award by the end of 2018. Completing this will help me focus my leadership on goals that will benefit our Troop and Scouts. _____

Who: This is a personal training goal that will benefit me as well as my Troop. _____

What: Complete all the requirements to earn my Scouter's Training Award. _____

Where: Not applicable. _____

When: By the end of 2018 (I will be able to meet the time requirement by the fall of 2018). _____

Why: Because the Scouter's Training Award will help me grow and develop as a leader. In addition, it helps me to focus on goals that will improve our troop. _____

How: In addition to meeting the time requirement (see "When" above), I need to (a) participate in our next annual troop planning meeting, (b) help our troop earn at least the Bronze level of Journey to Excellence, and (c) give primary leadership in meeting at least one troop Journey to Excellence objective next year. _____

How you will determine the task is complete: Once I have earned my Scouter's Training Award. _____
