A Personal Vision of Success

Name: Dewvaul W. Tracy, III

S7-602-17 Patrol: Bear

My Scouting position: Scoutmaster

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Troop 2874

My vision of success and the related plan of action is:

To enable Troop 2874 to grow and be relevant in the 21st century through environmental, spiritual and scouting enlightenment.

Wood Badge Ticket Goal Sheet Goal # 1

Name: Dewvaul W. Tracy, III

S7-602-17 Patrol: Bear

My Scouting position: Scoutmaster

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Troop 2874

SMART goal: Take Commissioner Basic Training (Associate Degree in Commissioner's College)

Who: Myself

What: I will sign up and take the Commissioner Basic training course

Where: A location to be determined by the Heart of Virginia Council

When: I plan to take this training in the 1st quarter of 2018

Why: This training will give me the opportunity to see what scouting has to offer in a wider spectrum and allow me to take those things back to my troop

How: I will receive a certificate of completion

How you will determine the task is complete: By completing this course, it will open other opportunities and allow me to take that information back the troop

Wood Badge Ticket Goal Sheet Goal # 2

Name: Dewvaul W. Tracy, III

S7-602-17 Patrol: Bear

My Scouting position: Scoutmaster

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Pack 2874 and Troop 2874

SMART goal: Provide Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts the opportunity to strengthen their religious beliefs through the Duty To God / Religious Emblems Program

Who: Myself, Pack 2874, Troop 2874

What: Collaborate with the District Religious Emblem Coordinator to gather materials on the Religious Emblems program

Where: At St. Luke's United Methodist Church

When: Within the first nine months of 2018

Why: Baden-Powell advocated for all Scouts to strength their relationship with God

How: To provide the opportunity for the Cub and Boy Scouts to participate in the program based on the four different age categories: God and Me, God and Family, God and Church and God and Life

How you will determine the task is complete: Do a presentation to the charter organization, pack committee and troop committee on the merits and mechanics of the Duty To God / Religious Emblems problem. This serves as my diversity item.

Wood Badge Ticket Goal Sheet Goal # 3

Name: Dewvaul W. Tracy, III

S7-602-17 Patrol: Bear

My Scouting position: Scoutmaster

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Troop 2874

SMART goal: Provide Scouts and Scouters the opportunity to earn the Outdoor Ethics Awareness Award (OEAA)

Who: Myself, Scouts and Scouters

What: Scouts and Scouters will feel the full majesty outdoors and how to leave with the same footprint as when they arrived

Where: At troop meetings, camping trips and self-study

When: Within the first 6 months of 2018

Why: To help Scouts and Scouters be better stewards of the environment, which will allow future Scouts/Scouters and non-Scouts/Scouters to enjoy the outdoors as we do presently

How: Scouts and Scouters will have earned their OEAA

How you will determine the task is complete: Scouts and Scouters should use and exhibit the skills they learned to earn this award. I will provide a roster of who participated and attended

Wood Badge Ticket Goal Sheet Goal # 5

Name: Dewvaul W. Tracy, III

S7-602-17 Patrol: Bear

My Scouting position: Scoutmaster

The team that will benefit from my leadership: Troop 2874

SMART goal: Coordinate an adult only camping trip

Who: Myself and parents of Scouts

What: This will give parents an opportunity to see and feel how information in the Scout Handbook comes alive when they are in the outdoors

Where: On a camping trip

When: Within the first nine months of 2018

Why: It will give the parents a glimpse of what we do on camping trips and hopefully inspire them to become more active with the troop

How: When we return from the adult camping trip experience

How you will determine the task is complete: Upon returning from the camping trip, we will have a meeting to discuss anything that sparked their interest. I will take attendance and report participated and attended.
