

Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the June, 1960, Senior Class, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

1. I, Carolyn Browning, bequeath my office as Student Council President to the next lucky president.
2. I, Pat Bennett, bequeath to anybody who is on The Monocle Staff for a year a calendar on which to mark deadlines.
3. We, Carol Bethel and Sandra Wright, bequeath the editorship of the John Marshall Monocle to anyone who would enjoy visiting Williamsburg. Good luck whoever you are!
4. We, Alan Long, Harry Shiffett and Richard Winstead, will our twenty-year plan at school for anyone who is foolish enough to use it.
5. I, Robert Turner, will my position as shortstop on the JM baseball team to the speediest hustler at the "new" John Marshall.
6. I, Mary Breeden, will to my fellow students another excuse for being late for classes, since there won't be any tunnel in the new school.
7. I, Jackie Roberson, bequeath to Carol Banks the rush of trying to graduate to catch somebody who's just a little ahead of her.
8. I, Lynda Switzer, bequeath "Pierre" to Frances Liles.
9. I, Barry Sommer, bequeath to the next blue-shirted dummy holder my number "76."
10. I, Phyllis Tomlin, bequeath my pair of used ear plugs to the next lucky person who has Mr. Arnold.
11. I, Linda Trice, will to the next lucky person the cool times I've had in Mrs. Atkins' English class.
12. I, Karin Bach, bequeath the happy memories of the "swinging" sixth period français class to Linda Hofstetter, Dale Gatewood, and Cathy Taylor.
13. I, Nick Hardie, will all my brilliance to Arlene McCrone.
14. I, Eleanor Ashby, will to Mary Arthur at the new JM all of the good times I've had in first period study hall—thanks to Miss Dowdy.
15. I, Eleanor Phillips, will our dear old John Marshall to the cherished memories of all those who have attended during these 51 precious years.
16. I, Brenda Beninghove, bequeath my homeroom desk, because I always sit on it, as a park bench for the proposed civic center.
17. I, Connie Hemp, will my shorthand pad and pen to the next lucky person who has an opportunity to take dictation from Dr. Dixon.
18. I, Richard Lipscombe, will to the destruction crew all of the bricks in the old John Marshall building.
19. I, Daniel McFaden, will my seat in Russian class to the next poor soul who can tolerate the insults of John Adams.
20. We, Sandra Carver and Tim Garrison, bequeath the best bunch of boys we know to the new high schools, that they may continue the hard work and loyalty that "B" Company has shown us.
21. I, Robert Purcell, bequeath to some lucky person, the privilege of having a night time job driving a tractor-trailer.
22. We, Juanita Burton and Aelise Green, bequeath our true love of studying and all of the wonderful times we've had at Jayem to our "baby sister" Nancy
23. I, Myra Mercier, bequeath eating lunch in the movie room to the next lucky person who has to eat in there.
24. I, Mary Burger, will permission for Cecil Mercer to eat his lunch during study period.
25. I, Barry Goldin, will to the next person lucky enough to be president of the Spanish Club the fun of making the welcoming speech at the Foreign Language Banquet.
26. I, Owen Yates, bequeath all of my hard times in English to Brenda Usry.
27. I, Peggy Medlin, bequeath my honor as a Miss Justice Princess to the next girl who is luckier than I was, and wins.

28. We, "Tunie" and "Holbrook" bequeath the "hot" 1950 Pontiac to Carolyn Coleman and Jean Hebert in hopes that they will learn to shift gears without grinding them.
29. I, Wanda Bryan, will all of my Spanish books to the next person who gets Mr. Harwood.
30. I, Claire Bethel, bequeath all of my stories which never got in the paper to the next poor Monocle reporter who can't write either.
31. We, Frances Mayer, Carole Bishop, and Myra Lee VandeReit, will all of our good times playing varsity sports to Pat Klein, Jo Klein, and Ann Sibley.
32. I, Douglas Hackney, bequeath all the tools in auto mechanics to the next gang of grease-monkeys.
33. I, Charles Kemp, will to my little sister a wonderful senior year.
34. We, Virginia Worsham and Fairfax Hardesty, do hereby bequeath two cases of nerves to the next fortunate people who become chairmen of the Junior-Senior Prom.
35. I, Maxine Foore, will homework to my brothers, Max and Ronnie.
36. I, Jody Cecil, will the next struggling semester of art to Carolyn Elliott and Sheila Drumheller.
27. I, Edward Rogers, will my position of Key Club President to the next lucky boy elected to the office.
38. I, Tommy Blaylock, bequeath my seat in Mrs. Brewington's D.E. class to the next lucky person who likes to take notes.
39. I, Linda Pace, bequeath to the next "Miss Second Place"—better luck next time!!
40. I, Claudia Moore, will all the happiness of a successful high school life to anyone else seeking the same.
41. I, Bessie Martin, will all the seats in my homeroom to all who like to get to school early.
42. I, Harry Riggs, will my seat in Latin 4 to "T-Bird" Thompson.
43. I, Eddie Robinson, will my seat in Miss Auerbach's room to Harry.
44. I, Tommy Reynolds, bequeath to the next lucky student the faith, trust, and confidence of the students and faculty of John Marshall which made my high school life such a ball.
45. I, Carolyn Harrill, bequeath to Betty Bryant, Carol Ann Shiflett, June Jennings one of the radiators on the first floor at the new John Marshall, if they have any.
46. I, Florence Clements, will to the next person lucky enough to go to Winchester for four years the many hours of staying in to make up the time.
47. I, Carolyn Turner, bequeath to the future sponsors the thrills and joys that I have experienced during my term as sponsor of the corps, and the wish that each new sponsor will carry to the new schools the spirit which has made the John Marshall Cadets what they are.
48. I, Ramon Warren, bequeath nothing for fear that I won't leave at all!
49. I, Marilyn Millikin, bequeath the title of "wittiest" to the next goof who is witty enough to take it away from me.
50. I, Pat Vojtaskovic, will my worries to the next senior class that gets Miss Holloway for English 8X.
51. I, David Terry, will my position as center on the basketball team to my "little" brother, Dale.
52. We, Madeline Williams and Shirley Robinson leave. It's better that way.
53. I, Robert Welch, leave my Russian speech to John Adams in the hope that he will be the next tongue-tied Russian speaker at the Foreign Language Banquet.
54. I, Norman Housch, will to Miss Davis a colloidal suspension, because I know how she loves them.
55. I, Linda Caviness, bequeath all of my good times at Jayem to everyone in memory of this wonderful school.
56. I, Gene Loving, bequeath my C— in art and my stage manager's job to anyone lucky enough to get them.
57. I, James Hicks, bequeath to the next news editor of The Monocle my whip in the hope that he will use it more effectively in getting news stories from the staff on time.
58. I, Carolyn Davis, bequeath to Bobbit all the great times I've had at JM and also to the next lucky person my place on the cheering squad when we BEAT TJ.

59. I, Carolyn Gay, will my ability in shorthand and typing to my sister, Pat.
60. I, Nancy Collins, will all of my great times in the Jayem choir to Helen Woodson; and to the next lucky girl, my position as vice-president of the Future Nurses Club.
61. I, Donald Garber, bequeath my position of D.O.T. president to the next person to uphold the duties, ideals, and principles of the D.O.T. Club.
62. I, Mary Kittrell, bequeath to Charles Wynn, all of my fond memories of many wonderful days at Jayem.
63. I, Joan Cook, will to Linda Tuck and Sandra Throckmorton all the great times I've had at Jayem in my senior year; and to the next lucky person, the thrill of being president of the greatest choir in the world, for three consecutive terms!
64. I, Sandra Rochon, will all the wonderful times I've had as a senior to Linda Tuck.
65. I, Nancy Williams, will all of my fond memories to Wilma Delesk.
66. I, Evelyn Stone, bequeath my long, hard struggle trying to pass Mr. Harwood's fifth period Spanish class to Sandra Morse, Veeanne Mays, and Judy Loehr; also may the next lucky girl who is fortunate enough to be elected vice-president of the F.B.L.A. have the fun I've had during my three years at John Marshall.
67. I, Clifton Westbrook, bequeath my fabulous times to Margolis, who sorely needs a good time.
68. I, Donnie Cocks, will my seat at the lunch table to Helen.
69. I, Marie Wrenn, will to Ruby Gayle all the cokes she can drink during fifth period.
70. I, Rudolph O'Bier, will to the next person who has to give a speech at a Foreign Language Banquet my sympathy.
71. I, Tommy Sprouse, will the job of thinking up pantomimes for Miss Peple's speech class to another unimaginative speech student.
72. I, Wesley Childress, will my Spanish grammar book to all of Mr. Harwood's advanced Spanish students who feel that Spanish does not present a challenge to them.
73. I, Wallace Hudgins, bequeath all of the crooked "T" squares in drafting class to my fellow students.
74. I, Edmond Hubbard Johnson, will my book report of poems to Mrs. Vaughan for study.
75. I, Lanny Mahone, bequeath my block print to Mrs. Johnson for future research.
76. I, Faye Lafoon, will to the next unlucky person my five hours in Room 211.
77. I, Kenneth Fleet, bequeath my job as assistant stage manager to the next person who wants to see all of the entertainments without paying.
78. I, Gloria Rose, will my front row seat in Mr. Arnold's bookkeeping class to "Ernie" and "Butch," so that they may fight over it at George Wythe High School.
79. I, Terry Martin, will to Sue Crump and Linda Tuck another chauffeur who will take them to school during the next term.
80. I, Mary Jane Tyree, bequeath my seat in English to the next person who is lucky enough to sit behind someone who brings bubble gum.
81. I, Nan Sharp, will all my pantomimes to the next person who has nerve enough to do them, either on the ground or off the ground.
82. I, Troy Holland, will all my worn-out pencils and notebook to James Hair, so that he might use them at George Wythe.
83. I, Phyllis Gary, bequeath to the next lucky person the privilege of beginning a "GO JUSTICE" sign one day before a football game.
84. I, Sarah McKinnish, bequeath my electric typewriter in Mrs. Henderson's advanced shorthand class to the next girl who is lucky enough to get one.
85. I, William R. Shuman, bequeath my front row seat in Mr. Arnold's room to the next lucky person to be moved from the back of the room to understand THE number one subject better.
86. I, Stewart Ayers, will the task of picking up the ROTOS to the next lucky person who has a car at his disposal during school hours.

87. I, ~~John~~ ^{horrible future} ~~fields~~, hereby many good times in the J.M.C.C. to the next fellow lucky enough to get First Captain.
88. We, Pat Crostic, Judy Woods, and Karen Manuel, hereby bequeath our French Review Exercise books to the next three gullible freshmen who get in the rut.
89. I, Ken Murray, bequeath my sympathy to the next trackman that is lucky enough to run the 440-yard dash.
90. I, Barbara Carter, bequeath to Frances Jones the privilege of talking in Mr. Fowler's study hall without having to sit in the corner.
91. I, Ann Carnahan, will my four years at John Marshall to Cheryl Street in hopes that she will have as much fun as I've had.
92. I, Woody Pitts, will my place in clerical practice in 111 to the next lucky person who likes to punch keys.
93. I, Rick Farley, will my many years in high school to the next person who doesn't start studying until it is too late.
94. I, Joyce Whiteside, bequeath to Gloria Hampton the best of luck at the new John Marshall with the wish that she has an easier struggle in her senior year than I had.

95. I, Barbara Jean Sweeney, bequeath my seat in Mr. Jorgensen's room to the next person who doesn't know what's going on.
96. I, Janice Stevens, bequeath to my sister, Brenda, all the wonderful memories I've had at Jayem.
97. We, Tillie Overstreet and Dorothy Munford, will to our little sisters, Judy and Margaret, our good times in Mr. Arnold's bookkeeping class.
98. We, Patricia Bayne and Ruth Overcash, who know we barely made it, intend to take "all" with us, having nothing to leave.
99. I, Betty Lou Eades, will my seat after school in Mrs. Vaughan's room to the next person who has a bad memory.
100. We, John Wells and Tommy Carter, bequeath the jobs of Captain and First Lieutenant of the Band to the next four boys who are lucky enough to hold the same positions in the new Jayem and George Wythe Bands.
101. I, Winnie Kennedy, will my good times at John Marshall to Mrs. Fontaine's next unpaid secretary.
102. I, Larry Lawton, bequeath all my good times to the next person in Mr. Jorgensen's second period class.
103. I, Robert Shiflett, bequeath all my good times to the lucky students who have Mrs. Brewington for D.E.
104. I, Enos Slaughter, bequeath my place in electricity to Henry Chin.
105. I, Mary Diane Cowherd, bequeath my hard head and amateur acting ability to anyone whose head is too soft and who yearns for the stage.
106. I, Guy Hicks, will my place in Mr. Wiltshire's French class to anybody who can give him a hard time.
107. I, Frances Washe, bequeath my gift of gab to Sandra Morse.
108. I, Tommy Throckmorton, bequeath—
 To the memory of old Jayem,
 All that I possibly can.
 Memories of those who for so long,
 Have made Jayem so powerful and strong.
 It's a shame the old place has to go,
 But the new Jayem will soon grow!
109. I, Jerry Lindsey, being of sound mind and body, I think, do hereby bequeath to Clifton Westbrook my good grades in Miss Holloway's English 7X class.
110. We, Linda Holbrook and Johnny Neurohr, bequeath a full page of advertisements to Carolyn Coleman and "Tinker" Bell to help fill up the empty spaces on the sports page and a water-proof watch to repel the sweaty deadlines.
111. I, Evelyn Maxey, will to my swinging sister, Alice, the cool times I've had at Jayem.
112. We, Richard Kelvin and Eddie Robinson, will our good times at Jayem to the building wreckers.
113. I, Rosamond Walters, will my seat in 212 to anyone unfortunate enough to get it.
114. I, Kathryn Woodward, will to Diane Beasley the first year Spanish course in Mr. Harwood's class.
115. I, Frank Robinson, will to Miss Davis, Miss Heinrich, Mrs. Vaughan, and Mr. Wiltshire their health and my most sincere congratulations on having retained it throughout my stay at John Marshall.
116. I, Nancy Smiley, bequeath my struggling four years at John Marshall to Lulabelle, Pat, Sue, and Sylvia.
117. I, Nancy Bamat, bequeath all the A's I never received to the next student who gets through Jayem by the skin of his teeth.
118. I, Shirley Heflin, bequeath all my intelligence to my cousins,, Barbara and Betty Kierson, who may be able to use it better than I did.
119. I, Patsy Bowles, will all of my English projects to the next senior to have Mrs. Norris for English 8X.
120. I, Dale Games, will to Mrs. Warinner "Wide-awake Warren" so that he may sleep in peace.
121. I, Brenda Bridgman, bequeath the well-worn path through Capital

~~square to the next person lucky enough to be both editor and stu-~~ dent adviser of The Monocle.

122. I, Richard "Crusher" Jones, bequeath all my good times in 202 to the next person lucky enough to have Mrs. Fontaine for both government and modern problems.
123. We, Gayle Nichols, Carolyn Powell, and Jane Rowe, bequeath our "good times" and "errand boy" to anyone lucky enough to have fifth period study in 104.

In witness whereof, I, Aelise Green, have set my hand and seal this twenty-seventh day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty.