Email Address

Fill in the information as requested. Please use your last name that matches the VCU enrollment records. That way the VCU enrollment records match MyStatLab records.

You may use any e-mail that you use most often. You must accept the Pearson End-User License and Privacy Agreement to use the product. I ask that you read the License Agreement. (Some points I think are important are at the bottom of this document.)

On the next screen select Use an Access Code (included in book package) rather than Credit Card or PayPal.

When I completed this I got a message saying that I would get an e-mail when the registration was complete.

Once you have registered for Dr. Custer then you have a MyLab account with Pearson. Later you can add a new course for Dr. Andrews using andrews 69953.

Some points in the MyStatLab agreement I think are important are:

3. Use of the Information and Materials of the Website

3.1 Pearson grants a limited license to all users of the Website that is nonexclusive, personal, and nontransferable. Website Licensees may use, display, and, when such functions are available on the Website, reformat, download, and print Materials obtained through the Website solely for their own personal, non-commercial, educational purposes.

3.2 Login credentials (login name/username and password) may not be shared with others or otherwise disclosed to unauthorized third parties for any purpose whatsoever.

3.3 Except as you may be expressly permitted by this Agreement, you may not use, modify, adapt, reformat, download, upload, post, reproduce, broadcast, publish, display, perform, transfer or redistribute any Materials in any form, format or media or by means of any technology without obtaining the prior written authorization of Pearson and any other owner of the Intellectual Property Rights in such Materials.

3.4 You may, on an occasional and irregular basis, include insubstantial portions of Materials from the Website in memoranda, reports and presentations, and then only to the extent that such use constitutes "fair use" under applicable copyright and intellectual property law. In each such instance, you must include proximate to any excerpted Materials all copyright, trademark and other notices from the Website (whether or not included in the particular Materials used), and appropriate source attribution to Pearson and its licensors.

3.5 Prohibited uses of Materials:

Except as explicitly permitted under Section 3.4 above or pursuant to express written permission obtained from Pearson:

3.5.1 You may not reproduce, use, sell, transmit, publish, broadcast, or otherwise disseminate or distribute Materials from the Website to anyone, including but not limited to others in the same company, school, college or other organization, whether or not for a charge or other consideration, including but not limited to use in with "course packets" or with courses which do include the Website part of the curriculum.

3.5.2 You may not post Materials from the Website [including your answers to any homework or test questions provided by the Website] to newsgroups, mail lists, electronic bulletin boards, [homework sites, content aggregators, file storage services] or any other on-line destination.

3.5.3 You may not reproduce any illustrations, charts, photographs, outlines, extensive text excerpts, chapters, or e-books included in the Materials for any use outside of the class with which the Website is being used.

3.6 If you wish to request permission to reproduce Materials from the Website for other than the specifically authorized educational purpose, or if you have any questions about the proper way to include such notices, use the information available at <http://www.pearsoned.com/legal/permissions.htm> to contact the appropriate Pearson representative. Use of content used under license by Pearson may require the permission of the Licensor.
