Bassoon Fingering Chart
Low F to E

The bilowing are the basic fingerings which are used most of the time by bassoonists. For many of these, there are commonly used alternative fingerings. For additional fingering possibilities and more information on the tuning tendencies of these notes, please visit www.vcubassoon.org.

The lighter shades indicate optional, but highly recommended, additional keys to improve tone and intonation.