Check one of the following options*:

- ☐ Release the thesis/dissertation to the Web as soon as it is approved by the Graduate School.
- ☐ Release the thesis/dissertation to the Web after a period of five years (attach justification; limit one page).
- ☐ Release the thesis/dissertation to the Web after a period of 10 years (attach justification; limit one page).
- ☐ Never release the thesis/dissertation to the Web (attach justification; limit one page).

Note: The citation and abstract will appear in the VCU Scholars Compass for the duration of any restrictions placed on the work.

* Electronic theses and dissertations (ETD) make VCU student research and creativity available online as full-text documents and multimedia presentations for use by the university community and others involved in research. In some cases, a student and their advisor can choose to delay the release of the ETD to the Web. Typical reasons for selecting a delayed release of the ETD include proprietary work and future publishing rights. Based on the justification provided, the Graduate School reserves the right not to accept the embargo terms.

Rights and obligations

I hereby certify that, if appropriate, I have obtained and attached hereto a written permission statement from the owner(s) of each third party copyrighted matter to be included in my thesis, dissertation or project report, allowing distribution as specified below. I certify that the version I am submitting is the same as that approved by my advisory committee. I hereby grant to Virginia Commonwealth University or its agents the non-exclusive license to scan, archive and make accessible, under the conditions specified below, my thesis, dissertation or project report in whole or in part in all forms of media, now or hereafter known. I retain all other ownership rights to the copyright of the thesis, dissertation or project report. I also retain the right to use in future works, such as articles or books, all or part of this thesis, dissertation or project report. I agree that the above mentioned document be placed in the ETD archive.

I release my entire work for Internet access and unlimited photocopying, making it available to the international community of scholars and researchers, pending the expiration of any applicable release restrictions that I have placed on the work.
